

Yokohama Aguascalientes receives recognition for its Q1 certification from FORD

Last Thursday, February 27, YIAMX received recognition from FORD, by achieving the Q1 certification, which represents the sum of the effort of each of the collaborators to achieve this certification. This certification will allow us to open doors for new business with our client.

YIAMX is committed to maintaining this certification.